Option Analysis

Council District Boundary Commission
March 20, 2012

Boundary Considerations
- Federal (Required) -

- Population deviation between most populous and least populous districts should not exceed 10%
- Boundaries should be compact and contiguous
- Boundaries should follow roadways or other easily identifiable physical features
- Boundaries should not dilute minority voting strength

Boundary Considerations
- Local (Discretionary) -

- Boundaries should keep incumbents in their respective districts
- Boundaries should respect existing HOA boundaries
- Boundaries should not be precluded from crossing Central Expressway
- Boundaries should account for future growth where possible

Criteria Summary

Criteria	A	B	C	D	E	F
Deviation Less than 10%	3	2	4	5	1	0
Compact	4	5	3	2	1	0
Contiguous	10	10	10	8	6	6
Follow Easily Identifiable Features	1	1	1	1	1	1
Does Not Dilute Minority Voting Strength	1	1	1	1	1	1
Does Not Displace Incumbents	1	1	1	1	1	1
Respects HOA Boundaries	1	1	1	1	0	1
Number of Districts That Cross Central Expressway	2	2	2	1	1	1
Accommodates Future Growth	0	0	1	0	1	0
Total	23	23	24	20	13	11

Criteria Summary – Revised

Criteria	A	B	C	D	E	F
Deviation Less than 10%	1	1	1	1	1	0
Compact	4	5	3	2	1	0
Contiguous	3	3	3	2	1	1
Follow Easily Identifiable Features	1	1	1	1	1	1
Does Not Dilute Minority Voting Strength	1	1	1	1	1	1
Does Not Displace Incumbents	1	1	1	1	1	1
Respects HOA Boundaries	1	1	1	1	0	1
Number of Districts That Cross Central Expressway	2	2	2	1	1	1
Accommodates Future Growth	0	0	1	0	1	0
Total	14	15	14	10	8	6