

Richardson Police Department News Release

December 31, 2011

Bank Robbery 1400 Blk. E. Campbell Rd. – Compass Bank Richardson, TX

On Saturday, December 31, 2011, at approximately 11:44 a.m., officers responded to the Compass Bank located at 1401 E. Campbell Road on an armed robbery in progress call. One of the responding officers was fired upon several times by the suspect who was fleeing on foot through the parking lot. His squad received gunshot damage but he was not injured. A perimeter was established in an effort to apprehend the fleeing gunman. A mask, clothing, handgun and some cash were recovered, but the robber was not located.

Witness accounts and bank surveillance video give indication that the suspect was the robber that has been dubbed the "Handsome Guy" bandit due to the mask he wears as a disguise. That individual is believed to be responsible for more than a half dozen bank robberies in the DFW area.

Anyone with information about this offense, or who believes they may know the identity of the offender, is asked to contact the Richardson Police Department at 972-744-4801.
