RICHARDSON SENIOR GOLF LEAGUE
POINT SYSTEM

During the regular season of play, RSGL members accumulate points through attendance, competition, and volunteer efforts. At the end of each season, accumulated points are totaled and a proportionate amount of the prize money is distributed to each member according to his total points. The awards are given out at the award luncheon following the end of the season.

Attendance each Monday = 1 point

No-show penalty = 5 points (Failure to cancel before the pairings have been made)

Individual Events (In-Flight)[1] (Points – 116)

      1st Place = 11 points
     2nd Place =   8 points
     3rd Place =   5 points
     4th Place =   3 points
     5th Place =   2 points

2-Person Team Events (In Flight)[1] (Points – 152)

     1st Place = 11 points
     2nd Place = 8 points

4-Person Team Events (Mixed Flight)[1]

(Mixed Flight – Points – 116)	(In-Flight – Points 176)
1st Place = 11 points	1st Place = 11 points
2nd Place = 8 points
3rd Place = 5 points
4th Place = 3 points
5th Place = 2 points

Closest-to-Pin Winner (One for each Flight) = 5 points

Longest Drive Winner (One for each Flight, and one for Ladies) = 5 points

Volunteer for Designated Charity = 5 points

     Network of Community Ministries Golf Tournament (Billye Meyer) = 5 points
     Richardson Senior Center, kitchen or other volunteer duty= 5 points
     Other, if designated from time to time by the league President = 5 points

Revised 01/18/13

---

[1] New members who do not have a verifiable handicap are not eligible for Team or Individual points until they have posted 5 scores in RSGL league play.