July 15, 2011

Bank Robbery 1755 N. Collins Blvd. – First Community Bank Richardson, TX

On Thursday, July 14, 2011, at approximately 1:40 p.m., officers responded to the First Community Bank located at 1755 N. Collins Blvd. on a robbery call.

Officers arrived to learn that a white male entered the bank wearing a mask, suit coat sunglasses and carrying a black shoulder bag. He presented a note to one of the tellers and then pointed a pistol at her while demanding money. The suspect fled the location in an unknown direction. A suspect vehicle was not seen.

It is believed that this same suspect may be responsible for five similar bank robberies in Dallas, Irving and Plano. He is being called the "Handsome Guy" bandit because of the mask he has worn at each of the robberies. Additional details about those robberies can be found at Bandittracker.com.

Anyone with information about this offense, or who believes they may know the identity of the offender, is asked to contact the Richardson Police Department at 972-744-4801.
