in partnership with

Richardson Interfaith Alliance

presents

5th ANNUAL

Faith-Based Crime Prevention Conference "United We Stand"

This conference will provide relevant and applicable information on the safety of faith-based organizations. Attendees will learn how organizations can stand together to prevent a criminal event from occurring at their place of worship. The conference will address topics on:

- Congregational Watch
- Implementation of Safe Teams
- Reporting suspicious behavior
- Residential/Community Crime Prevention

Conference attendees will hear the personal story of a youth pastor who was shot at church. He will discuss lessons learned and the need for faith based organization to have policy and procedures for dealing with crisis situations.

Registration for this FREE event is not required but strongly encouraged as seating is limited.
